Tips on Pay Plans and Restricted Licenses for Participants

HOW TO REMOVE SUSPENSIONS FOR UNPAID FINES

- Fines listed by court on DMV Compliance Summary
- All fines must be removed before applying for license
- Obtain the case number and amount of each fine
- Strategy
 - Pay off any court in full if you can
 - Pay the clerk or collection agency
 - Take receipt (Form DC-30) to DMV
 - Request pay plans for other courts
 - Pay down payment – monthly payment until paid in full
 - Take receipt (Form DC-30) to DMV
 - Courts must offer a pay plan with a reasonable down payment (such as 10%)

HOW TO REDUCE THE INTEREST YOU OWE

- Courts will waive interest on all fines for periods while you were incarcerated
 - A person incarcerated nine years saved over $2,000 (28% of his fines)
- Get a certificate of incarceration period (Form DC-366) from DOC or jail
- Present this certificate to clerks of courts where you owe fines and costs

“I am pleased to inform you that I received my official driver’s license. I am so thankful and a testimony that if Edward can accomplish this, so can anyone.”

– Edward, Drive-to-Work Client

“Without the help of Drive-to-Work, I would still not be driving and I would still be trying to figure out how to pay my bills because I don’t live on a bus line. It was just almost impossible for me to do this on my own and they helped me every step of the way.”

– Janett, Drive-to-Work Client

HOW TO GET A RESTRICTED LICENSE

Are you eligible?

- Does the law allow it?
- Are all fines removed?
- Do you have a reason to drive?
- Do you need to enroll in VASAP?

Apply to court that convicted you

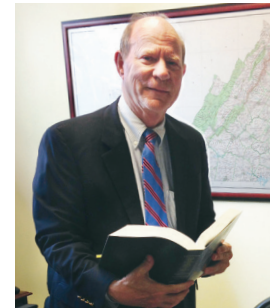

- List the specific details of where and when you need to drive
- Stay within the approved terms of the restricted license

Restricted Licenses

- Purposes
 - To and from work
 - At work, with employer’s OK
 - Medical appointments
 - Children to school/medical
 - Meetings with your probation officer
 - Church
- Authorized for Specific Suspensions
 - Driving on suspended license
 - DUI
 - Drugs
 - Habitual offender
 - Fines
 - Child Support
- Not allowed for commercial license

THERE ARE SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES FOR DRIVING OUTSIDE TERMS OF RESTRICTED LICENSE!

“I get satisfaction from seeing our clients succeed and will go to great lengths to help them through a complicated process.”

– Randy Rollins
Attorney, President Drive-to-Work
